Study English at UQ

The University of Queensland's Institute of Continuing & TESOL Education (ICTE) is a leading English language course provider.

Each year, ICTE welcomes almost 4000 students from over 50 countries. The Institute's 100+ teachers are highly qualified, and through innovative courses and the latest technology, our students learn in a fun and supportive environment. ICTE students also make the most of UQ's world-class campus and facilities.

Our students enjoy:

Small classes, experienced teachers and high-quality programs

You will enjoy dedicated attention from our experienced teachers and learn by communicating with your teacher and with other students in small classes with a maximum of 18 students per class.

You will engage in practical tasks that relate to real-world uses of English.

Your teachers will encourage you to develop your own learning style, help you to use new language and achieve your language goals.

Classrooms are equipped with the latest digital technology. Our courses cover a variety of topics and use a mix of course materials, including books, video, audio and digital content.

You will have the opportunity to make new friends in class, enjoy activities outside of class, and improve your English with focussed learning support.

A world-class campus lifestyle

At UQ's St Lucia campus, where ICTE is located, you will enjoy beautiful outdoor spaces, shopping, places to eat, and world-class sporting facilities. You can also make new friends by joining any of UQ's 220+ clubs and societies.

Global connections

Make friends and learn English with more than 18,000 international students and almost 4,000 English language students who choose to study at UQ.

First-rate student support

As well as excellent teaching support while you study, you will be supported during your time with us through options such as homestay accommodation, airport reception, and cultural, sporting and social excursions and activities.

Brisbane

Located on the east coast of Australia, Brisbane is the capital of Queensland. Young and progressive, the city offers world-class education and affordable living. With a subtropical climate, Brisbane delivers an average of 283 days of sunshine every year. Home to more than 200 nationalities and 220 different languages, Brisbane is one of the most multicultural cities in Australia.

Entertainment

The city has a great live music and arts scene, including the Gallery of Modern Art (GOMA), one of the best modern art galleries in Australia. Brisbane is also known for its festivals where writers, musicians and performers showcase their talent. Brisbane's climate is suited to outdoor sport with world-class facilities across the city.

Food

With just under a third of Brisbane's population born overseas, you'll find many nations represented in restaurants and cafes, while markets and specialty grocery stores make it easy to find food from around the world. Brisbane hosts a huge number of multicultural events each year including the popular Regional Flavours food festival, Paniyiri Greek Festival, Night Noodle Markets, and BrisAsia Festival.

Getting around

One of the best views of Brisbane is from a CityCat – a ferry service that runs along the river from UQ's St Lucia campus to the city and the riverside suburb of Hamilton. Brisbane also has an extensive bus and train network that makes it easy to get around.

Explore Australia

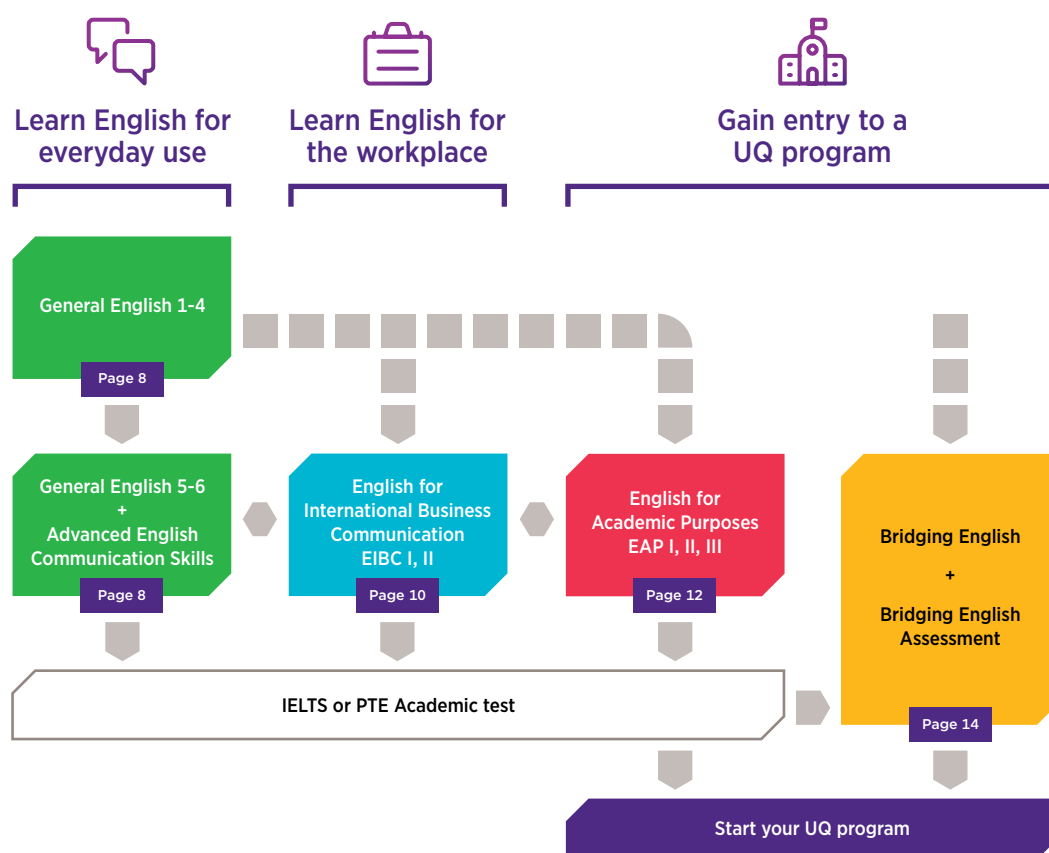

When you want to get out of the city, there is plenty to discover. Go south for the famous golden sands of the Gold Coast and Byron Bay, north for the quiet beaches of the Sunshine Coast or the majestic Great Barrier Reef, west for ancient rainforests and charming outback towns or east for the spectacular Moreton Island, Stradbroke Island and Fraser Island. Sydney, Cairns and Melbourne are all short flights away.

Pathways to UQ

If you meet all the academic requirements for entry into an undergraduate or postgraduate program (degree), including study abroad or exchange at UQ, and still need to meet the University's English language entry requirements you may be eligible for a UQ Package Offer. A package offer includes:

- ICTE English language course; and
- a place in your UQ program (conditional on meeting the English language entry requirements).

Depending on your current English language test score you will be offered a place in one of the following English language pathways:

- Bridging English (BE): 10, 15, 20, 25 or 30 weeks.
- General English (GE) and English for Academic Purposes (EAP): 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40 or 45 weeks.

BE students can use their final BE assessment to satisfy the English language entry requirements for their UQ program. GE and EAP students can take an approved English language test at ICTE at the end of their course to show they meet UQ's English language entry requirements.

Testing

ICTE is an official English language test centre for the following tests:

- International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
IELTS is an internationally recognised paper-based or computer-delivered test available in two formats: Academic and General Training. To gain entry into a UQ program, you will need to complete the Academic test.
- Pearson Test of English (PTE) Academic
PTE Academic assesses listening, reading, speaking and writing all via computer in a single three hour test session.
- Occupational English Test (OET)
OET is for healthcare professionals who want to register and practise in an English speaking environment.

How you will study

- Work individually, in pairs and in groups during discussion-based activities
- Focus on applying feedback to your learning
- Complete interactive online tasks
- Read and listen extensively
- Complete set writing tasks and independent project work
- Have one-to-one consultations with your teacher every five weeks.

Course modules

- Reading and writing
- Listening and speaking
- Review and extension

Your study options

Bridging English offers two course streams: Advantage and Standard. Choose the one that is best for you.

Advantage (recommended)

Choose BE Advantage to complete your assessment five to six weeks before the start of the UQ semester.

- If you pass the BE assessment, you can then take Academic Communication Skills (ACS) to improve the academic skills that you need to be successful at UQ.
- If you do not pass the BE assessment the first time, you have another opportunity to pass before the beginning of semester by taking the BE Extension course.

Standard

- Assessment completed immediately before the start of UQ semester.
- No optional courses available.

"The teachers at ICTE are both patient and helpful. The facilities and student services are awesome.

The UQ campus is both stunning and spacious. Definitely the first benefit of learning English on a university campus is the environment.

I participated in Conversation Club activities, a picnic, and I joined the UQ Wasabi Club.

The benefits of learning at ICTE are that you can learn English in an English-speaking country and find a lot of opportunities to use and practice the language.

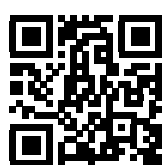

You can make friends and learn English effectively."

Where to live

Whether you would like to live on-campus or off-campus, there are a number of options you can explore to find accommodation to suit your needs. You can also choose homestay and live with a local Australian family while you study.

Choose accommodation options to suit your lifestyle and make you feel at home.

Homestay

Homestay is one of the best ways to immerse yourself in Australian culture, develop lifelong friendships, and practise your English skills in everyday situations. You will live with a friendly, local homestay host, and your host will provide you with a private bedroom and desk, breakfast and dinner on weekdays, and all meals on the weekend.

ICTE assesses each homestay provider for their suitability as hosts, and we will match you to a host that is most suited to your needs. Your Homestay Host may be either a single person, a couple, or a family. Homes are usually located within 10 kilometres of the UQ campus.

How to apply

Applying to study at ICTE is easy. With applications open all year round, you can complete your application in four easy steps:

Step 1

Apply

To apply online visit icte.uq.edu.au/apply

If you have a recognised English test result, include a copy with your application.

Step 2

Enrol and pay

Receive your Letter of Offer. Sign and return the Enrolment Agreement and pay your fees at least one month before your course starts.

You can pay fees by electronic bank transfer or credit card. Detailed instructions on how to pay are included in your Letter of Offer.

Step 3

Receive your Acceptance Letter

You will receive an Acceptance Letter.

You will also receive an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (e-CoE) if you are applying for a Student Visa.

Step 4

Organise your visa and start packing!

Apply for your visa as early as possible. For more information about the right visa and to find your closest Australian Visa Office, visit homeaffairs.gov.au

If you booked airport reception or homestay, we will send you more information before you arrive.

Apply for a UQ Package Offer

If you meet your preferred UQ program's academic requirements but NOT the English language proficiency requirements, you may apply for a 'Package Offer' through UQ International Admissions, which includes an ICTE English language pathway course and your preferred UQ program.

future-students.uq.edu.au/study

Applying through an authorised ICTE agent

ICTE has agents in over 70 countries who can assist you and help with your enrolment and visa application.
